A boxing match between two nuns is coordinated by a young priest who used to be a machine-gunner in the belly of the beast. A starving young BOY is faced with the decision of whether or not to eat his pet chicken. An abandoned infant baboon arrives at a convent, collapsing at the feet of a statue of St. Francis of Assisi. An eccentric heiress s mansion in the Hollywood Hills is turned into a psychiatric residence for celebrities. Several thousand years in the future the Gatherians come to Earth, conquering the humans, turning them into a food source. In JOSEPHINE, a seamstress nun has a pet rat that sits on her shoulder while she sews. A controversial political party called TORT (Truth Or Remove Tongue) makes headlines, friends and enemies. Most of the stories are fiction, but a few, like the author s childhood encounter with CHARLES BRONSON are true.
