Carolyn May, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Bess looked at Frog s revolting skin And gulped as something deep within Did threaten to regurgitate The food she d had on lunchtime s plate! A collection of five hilarious stories in rhyme, for children aged 6 - 10, about animals trying their very best to do human jobs, but with unfortunate consequences! Meet Freddie the horse, who has always wanted to be a famous football referee, but who finds himself up against the fury of the greatest player ever known; Ray, the kindly lion hairdresser who has a terrible accident with two horrid customers; Rose, the canine detective out to rescue the Queen s stolen jewels from a rather smelly thief; the would-be Frog-Prince determined to get his maiden even though she refuses to kiss his slimy skin; and Doctor Owl, who prescribes a disgusting diet to encourage a fussy eater to mend his ways! Author Carolyn May was originally inspired by Roald Dahl as a child and has now written these stories in tribute to the enormous pleasure his books gave her when a youngster herself. She thinks her animals might possibly be even a bit more troublesome though! Well known children s illustrator Laura Liberatore adds a delightful set of illustrations to give a charming insight into the characters appearances and emotions. We d love to hear your feedback!
