Mediatrix Press. Paperback. Condition: New. 322 pages. Dimensions: 8.4in. x 5.8in. x 0.7in. From the Preface: Most Americans who have studied Latin, with our priests and seminarians included, have employed this method, which they thought was traditional. But as something fully developed, this tradition scarcely goes farther back than 1880; and even in its beginnings it hardly antedates the seventeenth century. In contrast to this method of grammatical analysis, Father Mosts textbooks reproduce much of the natural method by which children learn their native language. Hence, the significance of Father Mosts books is manifestly great for the Latin classes in any Catholic high schools or colleges. So much of our Catholic doctrine and culture have been deposited in Latin that we want many of our educated Catholics to be able to use Latin with ease. But the special significance of Father Mosts texts is for the Latin classes in our seminaries. Here the students still have much the same cogent motives to master the art of using Latin with ease as the pupils of the thirteenth or sixteenth century. They need it as an indispensable means of communicating thought in their higher studies, and afterwards throughout life. The objectives (knowledge about Latin and training of mind) and corresponding methods (grammatical analysis and translation) traditional since 1880 have taken over in our seminaries; and there too the students have been experiencing an ever growing inability to use Latin. Father Mosts textbooks can contribute much towards revolutionizing the teaching of Latin by bringing back, as the chief objective, the art of reading, writing, and (when desired) speaking Latin with ease. Fr. Mosts textbooks can be classed in categories of similar texts, such as Hans rbergs Lingua Latina, as well as Ecce Romani which is a simplification of rberg or others which aim to...
