Carlton Books Ltd, United Kingdom, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. Formula One 2017: The Carlton Sports Guide is back for the 21st season of the best preview book in world motorsport. This volume celebrates the amazing and exciting 2016 season, the successes, failures and surprises; reveals the inside stories of every race, the key talking points - looking both back and forward - and previews the 2017 campaign, team by team, driver by driver and track by track. What happens on the world's F1 circuits in February, March and April is normally very different from the action in September, October and November (when the title is normally decided) and that is what makes the sport so special. Race by race, you can keep up with the scores thanks to the fill-in chart. This fantastic volume, the only one you will need, takes you around the world following the world's best motorsport action.
