Brand New Book  Print on Demand .ONE of the most important efforts made by Pope Leo XIII., during his long and glorious pontificate, was to promote a greater love and esteem for the Holy Scriptures. Not only did he urge upon ecclesiastical students and professors the need of a profounder and a more critical and exhaustive study of the Hebrew, Greek and other texts, but he also strongly recommended the Inspired Volume to the devout use and attentive consideration of all the faithful in general. In earnest and loving words he exhorted his two hundred and fifty millions of spiritual subjects scattered throughout every land to familiarise themselves more and more with the Written Word of God. So anxious was he that his advice should be laid to heart that he granted to everyone, who should spend a quarter of an hour in reading or meditating on the Holy Book, a special indulgence. In pondering over the words of this holy Pontiff we are forcibly put in mind of what other saintly men have said on the same subject. There must be, says St. Basil, assiduous and constant reading and meditation of the Holy Scriptures, in order to bring out and impress upon the mind the majesty of the hidden truths therein contained. To read the Holy Scriptures, exclaims St. Augustine, in his 112th sermon, is to obtain no slight knowledge of Divine beatitude. In the Scriptures, as in a mirror, man can see himself, and what he is, and whither he is going. Regular reading of the Holy Scriptures elucidates all things, it instils a fear of hell, and lifts up the heart of the devout reader to heavenly joys. He who desires to be ever in...
