Increasing prosperity and fresh trials--Illness and return of Mrs. Johnson--Mr. Johnson afflicted with Ophthalmia. Ocr history now draws to its close. The first Report sent by Mr. Johnson in the year 1822, is brief. We shall give it entire. Dear Brethren, Grace to you, and peace from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ. I thank my God that it Las pleased him once more to bring us here together, and that he still enables me to state to you, that his word prospers; yea, has free course and is glorified at Regents Town, in the conversion of sinners and the edification of saints. Fourteen candidates are under instruction for the sacraments of Baptism and the Lords Supper, and they will, (D. V.) be admitted to those ordinances on Easter day. Love and unity among the communicants...
