By Rayner Tapia

Createspace, United States, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . It seems just like any other ordinary autumn morning. The old Redwood Coast tree just appeared from no-where with the glistening of an old Dream Catcher hanging from the twisted branch with a silver spider web shimmering a silent call. Surely they were there before? James now mesmerized, is lured into an obscure galaxy. Once in the unknown land a fiery display spills out Xle-Ha (zelha). He is a perilous and ferocious character set out to snatch back the Dream Catcher, which James proudly carries. James s mission now begins to slowly unravel. He is assisted by his brother Tom and with the many strange characters that reside on the land. However, they are frequently tormented by Morkann with her army of Ghouls. The boys are never too far away from any destruction Morkann is able to cause. She is ruthless in her pursuit to avenge back the land. There are many battles, which ensue some are riddled with intense emotion.
