NO ROOM FOR DOUBT: A TRUE STORY OF THE REVERBERATIONS OF MURDER

Berkley, 2009. Book Condition: New. Brand New, Unread Copy in Perfect Condition. A+ Customer Service! Summary: No Room for Doubt is a compelling account of a real-life homicide and its aftermath. Angela Dove writes about her stepmother's brutal murder in March 1988, meticulously recreating the course of the investigation and its chilling effect on those whose lives were tainted by this crime. Sue Grafton, bestselling author of T Is for Trespass This book will bring light to its readers, showing them the reality of what one person can do when they take away the joy and life of another . . . This book clarifies that the ramifications of murder run deeply. Susan Levy, mother of murder victim Chandra Levy and founder of Wings of Protection No Room for Doubt is an accurate and fascinating account of the painstaking search to catch a sexual killer who terrorized a community. Meticulously researched and highly readable, Angela Dove writes from inside the investigation with skill and compassion. She captures the intricacies and details of the forensic and behavioral evidence in a way that makes you feel like you were there . . . one of the most gripping true crime books I've read in years . . . the resolution will stun you. Mark E. Safarik M.S., V.S.M. (FBI Ret.) Executive Director, Forensic Behavioral Services International A compelling true story of a loving mother's determination to seek her daughter's murderer. While law enforcement struggles to solve the mystery, Jacque MacDonald is inspirational as she courageously uncovers the horrifying truth. Jacque MacDonald is a true inspiration to victims of crime. Her perseverance to seek justice when law enforcement had nearly given up is a true testimony of a mother's love and devotion. Debra Puglisi Sharp, author of...
