EVERYBODY'S SOMEBODY'S FOOL: A SAM MCCAIN MYSTERY (LARGE PRINT EDITION)*DOWNLOAD

Thorndike Press - Chivers Press, Waterville, Maine/Bath, England, 2003. Hardcover. Condition: New. Large print edition. Classic pictorial cover design. Shamus-winner Gorman's niftily titled new novel opens on a warm summer night in 1961 in Black River Falls, Iowa. Soon after a girl turns up dead at a class reunion party, her drag-racing boyfriend slams into a clay wall at 90 miles an hour. An obvious accident-but then the police find his brake line had been cut. Reluctantly, McCain enters the investigation, which involves jilted girlfriends, unfaithful spouses and a clever, resourceful killer. Besides being a competent, suspenseful mystery with more than a few surprises, this fifth in the series (Save the Last Dance for Me, etc.) is a fascinating time machine, recalling the arcana of a more innocent time (sick jokes, the Maverick TV series, teenagers using the phrase "Daddy-O"). Size: 8vo - over 7¾" - 9¾" tall. Book.
