

Fred, and Maria, and Me

By Elizabeth Prentiss

Curiosmith. Paperback. Condition: New. 52 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.1in. This is an amusing story of Aunt Avery and her nephew, Fred, who was always asking for help. Her soft heart gave him money to get his business going and for whatever else. Aunt Avery, who had never been 20 miles from where she was born, lacked knowledge in the ways of the world. She was unsettled when she went to New York and saw what Fred was doing with the money, but Aunt Avery's quaint ways that were based on the Bible were honored by God. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg, OR, La Vergne, TN. Paperback.

Reviews

Basically no terms to clarify. It is actually written in basic terms rather than confusing. I found out this ebook from my dad and I suggested this book to find out.
