BUSINESS ETHICS

Wiley-Blackwell, 2013. Book Condition: New. Brand New, Unread Copy in Perfect Condition. A+ Customer Service! Summary: "Boylan appropriately encourages readers first to 'know thyself,' since construction of effective decision-making models begins with introspection. His guidance certainly is well-placed, given lessons of the past decade - and before. Business Ethics proceeds to equip its readers with the tools necessary to continue to construct those models while allowing for diverse results. Throughout the text, readers are offered varying perspectives on classic ethical...
