

A Little Collection of Truths (Paperback)

By Jeffery L Tribby

Xulon Press, United States, 2009. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This book looks at a group of Biblical truths from the perspective of an average citizen who uses Scripture, jokes, short stories, and life experiences to examine them. This book is for everyone, Christian or non-Christian, teen and older, who would like to have a serious but sometimes whimsical look at some of the most fundamental truths to be found in the Bible. It isn't a deep, scholarly endeavor but is designed to be basic and straightforward for the average reader. Jeff Tribby is a retired Naval Petty Officer who walked down a church aisle at age seven to join the church but became a true believer in Jesus Christ in the Philippine Islands during the Viet Nam era. During his naval career and afterward, his passion for writing steered him toward science fiction, which he blended with Christian beliefs and values. Following a short career as a library assistant at a local university, Jeff retired for medical reasons. This gave him some new insights and perspectives on his life in Jesus and decided to share a few of them with...
