

The Dog Who Saved Pleasantville: A Tail of Lifestyle Choices for Kids and Their Parents (Paperback)

By Team Wlody

BookBaby, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. It all began when Sugarman s processed food factory came to town. The people of Pleasantville have been slowly transformed into a zombie-like existence from eating Sugarman s products. The once green rolling hills have turned brown and the lakes and streams have become polluted! Traveling across the country are Kato and his human parents known as Team Wlody. They notice DARK MURKY MUCK lurking in the sky over Pleasantville, so they stop to see what s causing it. What they find can happen anywhere. They set about to help their new friends Jake and Karen restore health and vitality to the people of the town, clean the environment, and turn the greedy owner of a processed food company, into an enlightened and generous man! Lifestyle choices, healthy eating, exercise, bike riding, caring for our environment and moral lessons are all wrapped up in this fun, illustrated, educational book! The effects of eating processed foods and too much sugar are making people sick. Kids and parents will love this book! It will create a dialogue, and get them excited to be proactively involved in their own food choices, and...
