Brand New Book  Print on Demand .My purpose in life was revealed to me over the years and has culminated in this book. I had been watching my country fall away from the faith, that our nation was founded upon, for some time. God cries out a warning to us to convert to Christianity people of diverse cultures, in our nation, before it is too late. I love my country and my Christian God. My American flag, faded and a little torn, flies daily, except in bad weather. If I have opened eyes and minds and helped anyone, by this book, my purpose in Christ has been made complete. It is my intention to awaken a world asleep in sin. My prayer is that God will look down and bless our nation again. Betty is a former newspaper writer and photographer having worked on two North Carolina newspapers; one as associate editor, another as news and feature writer and photographer. She studied journalism, business administration and photography at Sampson Community College, Clinton, N.C. and art, UNC-Wilmington. She is a native of Smithfield, Virginia and makes her home in Clinton. She has three daughters and one grandchild.
