Were the former the degraded system of falsehood and superstition which it is frequently represented, a statement of its acknowledged doctrines would be sufficient to convict it: were the latter guilty of the base and criminal practices so constantly imputed to them, a simple, unimpassioned appeal to their lives and visible bearing would drive them from society and the world. Men do not combat falsehood with misrepresentation nor do they, denounce a real Offender on the evidence Of fictitious crimes. The fact that they are driven to the necessity of invention, to combat doctrines that were never held, and practices that were never allowed, to seek in the past for the evidences of the present, and...
