LOGAN S INFLUENCE: CARNAL SACRIFICE (PAPERBACK)

Createspace, United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Invited to a party by his friend Martin Thurber, the avant-garde writer Keith Logan quickly begins to turn their host against him by his radical views on God, evolution, religion, literature, etc., with a result that he quite spoils the party atmosphere for Edward Hurst, and unwittingly puts the future of Thurber s employment as an in house art critic for Hurst s magazine in jeopardy . when, under duress of a hangover the following morning, the publisher decides to dispense with his art reviews partly in revenge for the intellectual humiliations inflicted upon him by Logan the previous night. Yet Hurst has a crush on Thurber s girlfriend, who was also at the party, and, bumping into him in the street one afternoon, Greta Ryan elects to place herself at Hurst s disposal if only he will agree not to take any disciplinary action against Martin. Reluctantly, Hurst agrees to her proposal and it looks as though, thanks to her influence, Thurber s future as an art critic is assured. In the meantime, however, the latter has invited Logan to accompany him to a West End gallery in order to view an avant-garde artist whom he had been commissioned to review for Hurst, and before long he falls under the writer s radical influence and ends-up penning quite the most eulogistic review of such an artist ever! Hurst, however, is less than impressed, and, under pressure from his sub-editor, he finds himself in the unenviable position of having to reject Thurber s review and effectively break his promise to Greta. Naturally when the latter hears about this from her boyfriend, who now faces dismissal, she is incensed, and secretly vows to take...
