Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from A Treatise on Fraudulent Conveyances and Creditors Bills: With a Discussion of Void and Voidable Acts Recent innovations in civil procedure have effected important changes in the remedies of creditors in proceedings instituted to convert equitable assets or to reach property fraudulently alienated or held under a secret trust for the debtor. The aim of this treatise is to furnish suitors with a practical guide in this class of litigation. The earlier statutes and decisions concerning fraudulent Alienations to defeat creditors have been noticed; the debtor s rights and interests in property available to creditors have been considered; and the different forms of remedies or of procedure which may be invoked either at law or in equity; the status essential to entitle a creditor to maintain a bill; questions of parties, complainant and defendant; of pleading; the form and effect of the judgment; and the rules regulating provisional relief, reimbursement and subrogation, have been treated, the discussion embracing both chancery practice and the reformed procedure. The discussion, however, has not been limited to the details of practice or procedure. Chapters have been devoted to the subjects of intention, consideration and indicia of fraud; to the important questions relating to change of possession, and generally to evidence and defenses as appertaining to these suits. The rules applicable to frauds upon creditors springing out of the relationship of husband and wife, and relative to covinous general assignments and fraudulent chattel mortgagee, have been examined, and the doctrine of spendthrift nude discussed. Special pains have been taken in the treatment of the law of notice, actual and constructive, as applied to our subject. About the Publisher Forgotten Books...
