In This inspirational book, you will read Virginia s powerful testimony about her journey through many trials and tribulations. It was during this time of testing that the Lord taught Virginia how to walk by faith and not by sight. Over a 30-year period, Virginia learned the benefit of confessing the Word of God over her problems and circumstances. As she began to speak the Word, the power of God would move on her behalf bringing forth complete deliverance. Share in Virginia s journey through this wonderfully illustrated book, full of lively and vivid inspirational imagery of flowers and butterflies that will bring joy to your heart and comfort to your soul.
