Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . A Book For Hunters. Follow, here, a deeply carved trail to where wild animals and hunters share natural existences. It is a trail well-cut and lined with decency, upon which we are guided by an author who proves beyond certainty that those demanding explanations are the one s lost. The author is a lifelong hunter and his perspectives have earned him acclaim in numerous outdoor magazines; his work being particularly prevalent in the industry standard, Deer Deer Hunting Magazine where he is often featured on their renowned back page. For a long while now, sociological caterings have beckoned humans to step on pins and needles to avoid offending anyone, but hunters do not appear to enjoy such leniencies. That s nothing new. This book traces the vitriol hunters in the sixties, seventies, and eighties, overcame only to face new challenges slung from irrationally emotional enemies that refuse to apply any form of sensitivity whatsoever toward we who hunt. To them, we are always in season. Unfortunately, hunters have for too long hastily fought back from a posture of equal angst. In doing so we reduce our potential to place the onus of explanation where it belongs-directly on the narrow shoulders of our opponents. This book will arm hunters with a more viable way to surgically and convincingly make our points. It will also challenge hunters to accept the mission of preserving our pastime. Page is not merely a cheerleader and has tough questions to be answered from within. What a shame it would be to beat back numerous outside nemeses only to somehow internally implode. There are problems to be dealt with and this book will expose a few of those...
