Excerpt from Chaplets From Coquet-Side Holystone, a desolate little hamlet among the hills, seven miles west of Rothbury. A path leads across a meadow from the village to a little grove of firs, enclosing Our Lady s Well, a square basin of transparent emerald green water, with a copious spring. An old moss-grown statue of an ecclesiastic stands on the brink, and rising from the water is a tall cross, with the inscription: - In this place Paulinus the Bishop baptized 3,000 Northumbrians, Easter, DCXXVII. It is an interesting and striking spot, and well worthy of a visit. The little church stands on the site of a small convent for eight Benedictine nuns. The remains of a stone cross still exist upon the moors between this and Elsdon, which was a station of prayer for pilgrims coming to Holystone. Murray s Handbook for Northumberland. 1864.
