EWGO THE INVENTOR: THE ANGRY MOUNTAIN (PAPERBACK)DOWNLOAD

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .This story is for readers of all ages and especially the young reader. Ewgo is a 13-year-old inventor during the modern stone-age era. His inventions come not from necessity but from the love in his heart and desire to protect his younger brother. During the earliest history of modern stone-age humans, the struggle for survival was a daunting task. The endless search for food and shelter in a harsh, primitive world left little time for much else. Deadly predators of the time such as the Saber Tooth Tiger and the Dire Wolf posed a great threat to these early humans. They were feared almost as much as nature itself, which could easily decimate an entire Clan with one fateful act. With all that threatened the mere existence of these human beings, not until caves became a stable source of shelter, were they able to find the peace, security and sense of home needed to emerge as the most intelligent and inventive species on Earth. The reader might find it very interesting and challenging to list all the inventions Ewgo comes up with. At last count there were sixteen. Some are so simple you may miss them. Ewgo s brilliant mind comes up with different ways to solve problems or easier and more efficient ways of doing things. Some of his inventions are so important they have since become the most influential in all of human history, such as the fishing net and the bow and arrow! Have you ever wondered how the idea to invent the bow and arrow came about? If you read Ewgo The Inventor and The Angry Mountain you will discover just how Ewgo s brilliant mind...
