

The Dance (Paperback)

By Chris Fife

Createspace, United States, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Fiona Sullivan falls in love with dancing as she watches her parents dance Christmas Eve. Her parents know her how much she loves to dance, so they give her ballet lessons for Christmas. She is really excited about taking ballet lessons. It is a perfect Christmas for Fiona and she loves being with her parents thinking they were the best parents in the world. Christmas passes, and during the break from school, Kerry Fiona s mother starts to get sick. Fiona waits at home while her mother is taken to the hospital where she goes through a series of tests that reveal that she has cancer. Fiona is devastated that her mother is sick and becomes sad and depressed. Ardan Fiona s father convinces Fiona that she needed to continue with her ballet lessons. Fiona is good at dancing and continues to improve to the point she get a part in the Nutcracker. Fiona s parents are thrilled that she is doing so well with dancing, and it is one thing that helps to keep Kerry alive for so long so that...
