Condition: New. Publisher/Verlag: Klartext-Verlagsges. | National Policies and transnational Perspectives. Hrsg.: Institute for Social Movements / Ruhr-Univ. Bochum | Moving the Social - Journal of Social History and the History of Social Movements is a multi-disciplinary, international and peer-reviewed journal. It focuses on transnational and comparative perspectives on the history of social movements set in a wider context of social history. It appears twice yearly. During the last evaluation of the ESF Standing Committee for the Humanities (2011), the Journal was ranked INT2 (international with significant visibility). Moving the Social publishes research at the cutting edge of social history, broadly defined. This involves in particular the analysis of the diversity of economic, social, political and mental structures of social movements, from historical and social science perspectives, and the introduction of new research that is relevant to the field of social movement studies. | Jan Stoll: Disability Movements: National Policies and Transnational Perspectives - Introductory Remarks Anne Klein: Governing Madness - Transforming Psychiatry: Disability History and the Formation of Cultural Knowledge in West Germany in the 1970s and 1980s Monika Baár: Informal Networks, International Developments and the Founding of the First Interest-Representing Associations of Disabled People in Hungary in the Late Socialist Period (1970s-1980s) Jan Stoll: The West German Disability Movement as a Transnational, Entangled New Social Movement Paul van Trigt: A Blind Spot of a Guiding Country?
