Ime Ibanga is a native of Akwa Ibom State, South Eastern Nigeria; and now a naturalized citizen of United States of America. Ime is a pioneer BS graduate of Biochemistry (1983) from the University of Calabar, Calabar, Nigeria. During the undergraduate program, the authors interests in literary reading and writing were kindled through the mentorship of Prof. (Mrs.) Floyd, then the coordinator of the Use of English program. After serving in the National Youth Service Corps (NYSC) in 1984, took up science teaching appointment with the Government Public Schools Services in Nigeria from 1985 1995. The writer since 1990 developed a special passion to undertake missionary work, thereby obtaining the necessary ministerial training and commissioning. The region of his nativity in Nigeria is grounded and embedded with lively relics of European missionary pioneers of several Christian denominations. Notably, Mary Slessor, the Scottish Missionary, who served and stopped the killing of twins in the regions and times of the authors grandparents, provided the earnest motivation to embark on missionary and humanitarian endeavors. In 1996, the author immigrated to Atlanta, GA, United States, to incorporate Holy Ghost...
