He replied, No, I have never seen it quite like this. He wore no uniform, but I felt that he was the Captain. About this time the Russian Consul, who was on board, was taken to a small boat. He was accompanied by a native in gorgeous apparel, the uniform of a servant to a high official. Some one said the Russian Consul was a fine gentleman. After an hour of confusion and almost desperation on the part of those who were trying to get off and on the ship a person who Was trying to get on board was thrust back bodily by an officer and a moment later the steps, or ladder, was taken up. We learned then that the man with whom we had been conversing was the Captain. He told us that these men and women...
