Captain William Travis is a successful consultant geologist and oil prospector. He retired from the US Army many years ago and parlayed his skills, experience and contacts into a great business. He is also a Christian who is can best be described as lukewarm and lazy in his faith. Captain Travis views and ways on religion have made him a potential target for spiritual attacks and manipulation. The time eventually comes when he becomes a victim of dream attacks which render him captive to a wicked occult group. In his attempt to discover and deliver himself from the problem, the captain has to travel far away and is soon entangled in a mesh of a messy and almost hopeless story of bondage. As he struggles to break free he wishes he never got into the mess in the first place. But even when he thinks its over, the captain may yet have entered a new dimension of the problem. But can his newly found zeal in the things of the Lord deliver him from the situation he finds himself This item ships from La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
