Manyvillages Raised Charlie Pratt (Paperback)

By Charlie Pratt

Prattvillages, 2013. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Many Villages Raised Charlie Pratt takes us on a sentimental journey that spans eight decades. We learn in the Foreword that a child of color growing up on the other side of the tracks declared that he was going to be somebody. Indeed, that child became somebody. If you judge who somebody is by titles, then that little boy became a true champion with multiple National Track Field titles, culminating with the 1957 National Decathlon. Charlie Pratt, though, doesn't judge people by titles. He doesn't judge people at all. Instead he looks into their souls, measures them by their good intentions and thanks them for their kind deeds. He's that rare champion who genuinely credits others before himself. This book introduces us to those others; the people, teams and institutions that touched Charlie Pratt, nurtured him, shaped him, encouraged him, and, yes, raised him - literally, figuratively, and spiritually. Charlie saw these special shareholders in his life's endeavors through keenly observant eyes, but recalls them and speaks of them from a beholden heart. Hillary Clinton will tell you that the notion...

Reviews

Very beneficial for all type of folks. It can be really intriguing through studying time. You will like how the writer publish this ebook.
