Marc Matthews, intensely private star of the hit TV show Destiny, hates his fans. He can think of nothing worse than having to speak to, sign autographs for, or have his picture taken with them. So the day he finds out he's contractually obligated to attend the biggest TV convention of the year, Desti-nation, is not a good one for him. Left without childcare for his four-year-old, Tyler, he has to take his deaf son with him to the biggest fan event in Las Vegas. Ellie Roscoe, deaf interpreter and fangirl, has reached her fandom limit. After this convention she is done with TV shows, its stars, and the fan scene in general! No more binge watching, no more fan fiction, no more gif sets, its time to move on. But after the convention After shes met her favourite stars one last time, and finally claims the elusive Marc Matthews signature to complete her poster. When Tyler runs off, its Ellie that rescues him, but will Marc be prepared to listen to a fangirl This item ships from La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
