

One Day in Hell: And Other Uncanny Stories

By Gregory Adams

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .From the mean streets of Hell s capitol city to the well-appointed condominiums of Miskatonic Valley Planned Community, these 13 stories explore where unexpected realities and familiar horrors meet. Face lifeboat economics with the unsinkable Mr. Pinned, hunt witches in Colonial Massachusetts, dodge suicide bombers in a quiet American city, and take a guided tour of New York s most haunted house. This book will take you places that you have never imagined, and you will never forget. Advance Praise for One Day in Hell: This is why we read short fiction: the shock of the unexpected and the thrill of discovery. Gregory Adams writes stories that are clever, inventive, fun, and a joy to read. They are light and dark at once, and offer the pleasant sting of subversion and strangeness we find in the masters of the form. ---Brendan Halpin, author of Enter the Bluebird, Donorboy, and It Takes a Worried Man Inspired by the tentacular monstrosities that wait without, and seasoned with enough humor to make you laugh, Adams writing is a...
