

Mississippi Girl: Moonshine, Marijuana, Money, Murder and Starting Over in the Deep South (Paperback)

By Martha B Owens

Storehouse Media Group, LLC, 2018. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . My name is Beatrice Baker. I was born and raised in the town where Elvis was born. My parents were George and Grace Baker. Daddy s mother was Margaret Beatrice Baker, and I was given her middle name. I would have rather had her first name, but I didn t get to choose. I didn t particularly like my name growing up. It was fodder for the boys to tease me in elementary school. One particular boy that I liked sat behind me in reading. I thought he liked me until one day he leaned forward and whispered, Are you a bee, Atrice? The other kids would snicker, and I had to sit there and take it. When recess came, I would chase after the boy, wrestled him to the ground, and make him take it back. That was the end of that romance. I was somewhat of a tomboy, eventually became the big sister to my four siblings. I finally grew into my name and even started to like being called B. Life seemed hard for our family back then,....
