Continuation schools.-- Wisconsin requires all boys and girls working at gainful occupations and not yet 16 years of age to attend continuation schools one-half day, or four hours, each week, asserted the first of a number of charts illustrating the work of the continuation schools of Milwaukee. The aims of the continuation schools shown in the photographs of the exhibit were declared to be: To save the investment the community has already made in the education of these boys and girls in the elementary schools; to furnish those attending with practical experience varied in character which will be of service in the problem immediately before them--that of selecting an occupation at which they may earn a substantial wage and in many instances utilize special talents; to inculcate standards of moral, civic, and social conduct. The plan is described on the charts as follows: All of these boys and girls are required to come...
