Clergymen, Ministers, Church Office-bearers, and Sunday-school Teachers are largely responsible for the drunkenness and consequent misery that so largely prevail. Their example, as moderate drinkers, has made that to appear safe, harmless, and even commendable, which has proved to their followers seductive to every form of vice and suffering. Did you never see a sheep-drover, after trying in vain to drive a flock of sheep down some bye-lane, go to the front of the flock, seize one of the largest sheep by the shoulders, and drag him by main force down the lane What was the result Why, all the rest followed, and it would have been almost impossible to keep any back. In like manner that wily old drover, the Devil, in the spirit of alcohol, seizes or entices the great and the good, the leading members of the flock, well knowing that their evil example will more than counteract their good precepts. It is a painful thought, but is it not true, that many Extract from a speech by James Teare, delivered in 1848, reprinted from the Appendix to the Teare First Prize Essay, entitled Bacchus Dethroned, price 28. 6d. , post free. This work is almost exhaustive treatise, covering every phase of the temperance question. THE FORCE OF EXAMPLE. 59 thousands of drunkards, and paupers, and criminals through drink, exist to-day in wretched homes, in gaols, in asylums, in workhouses, in convict settlements, and many more have been borne...
