Excerpt from The Creevey Papers, Vol. 2 of 2: A Selection From the Correspondence and Diaries of the Late Thomas Creevey, M. P., Born 1768-Died 1838 About 9, past eleven the party came in, having done (as it appears to me) as much mischief as they could in so short a time. Nothing to be done to-morrow and Tavistock to move on Friday a censure upon Ministers - in other words, a motion to turn them out, and to supply their places with our own people - the only motion to do the Ministers the least service, as I think, under all their great difficulties This is the more provoking, because Tavistock, from the same motive with myself, did not attend this meeting, and yet had yielded to the views of some one in letting a notice of this motion be given for him. Was there ever anything like the inveterate folly of this Cole in pursuit of her maze? About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books.
