Excerpt from The Latter-Day Saints Millennial Star, Vol. 76: August 27, 1914 The question may be asked, Is this a new message, or gospel? To which we answer, No, indeed; it is the same old, beautiful story which has been such a power for good in all ages, and was taught by Christ and His apostles in the days of old with such great force that on one occasion the multitude exclaimed, Men and brethren, what shall we do to be saved? Such a day of power was Pentecost, when three thousand accepted the gospel and were baptized for the remission of their sins, and received the gift of the Holy Ghost. This is the gospel message, faith in God and Christ, repentance for sin, baptism for the remission of sins, the gift of the Holy Ghost to follow. These are the things neces sary for admission in to Christ s kingdom. What the people need, is again to come to an understanding of their relationship and obligation to God, and a practical applica tion of this knowledge in their daily...
