Excerpt: . . . only law God recognizes is the law of true love. I had never thought of that before, he has such high ideals. He isnt a bit influenced by the worlds opinion. I got home early, Mr. Leonard said he wouldnt have anyone talk about me any more than his own sister so he left me at the corner and waited until I got to the door, then he waved his hand. I almost thought he threw a kiss, but maybe I only imagined it. That party cured me of the blues all right. Mir. Leonard had to go away again the next day but hopes to get home soon. May 15. I Have never been so lonesome in all my life. I dont know what is the matter with me. I cant seem to get settled. I got another letter from Min, it made me more lonesome to read how happy she is. Not that I am not glad Min is happy but it just makes me notice more how lonesome I am now that she has gone and the Friendly meetings have stopped. I havent even Phil Curtis to go with now, not that I want to, but he would be somebody. Mr. Leonard is still away, he doesnt forget me though. He has sent me some books and two boxes of candy. He has written to me too, several times. I havent answered any of his letters yet as somehow I didnt...
