Over the course of his thirty-five-year spiritual journey, Otto John Kralovec III has studied and participated in ceremonies with shamans and indigenous spiritual leaders throughout North America, Mexico, Guatemala, and Honduras. Now, he vividly captures his inspiring personal shamanic odyssey toward his encounter with the Divine, supplemented by the latest anthropological findings on the ancient Maya, to guide us on a path back to the Source. Kralovecs remarkable experiences including his visionary encounter with Ix Chel, the Maya Moon Goddess, at Tikal; his shamanic journey through the Underworld with the spirit of Lord Pakal, ancient Palenques most famous ruler; and his Awakening in the presence of Ix Mucane, the sacred Earth Mother, at Chichen Itza helped him find a spiritual path of greater balance, awareness, and authenticity. Pathways to the Divine chronicles a series of profound mystical events that resulted in Kralovec embracing an ancient spiritual worldview profoundly relevant to contemporary society. By looking beyond his Christian roots, Kralovec has developed a truer sense of his higher self and the meaning and purpose of human existence. His book not only relates his journey toward greater happiness, health, and well-being, but also illuminates ancient spiritual beliefs desperately needed today. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg, OR, La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
