John Marples, Toronto, Ont This debate, which created no little interest in Canada, is now given to the public with the consent and approval of both contestants, who have kindly revised their speeches for publication by us. A Letter from Mr. Harpies to Mr. Underwood. Montreal, April 19, 1876. My Dear Sir: Yours of the 15th reached me here. I am perfectly willing that you should republish the report of our debate at Napanee. Of course you will have to correct your speeches and perhaps have to re-write whole paragraphs, but I must depend on your honor to put in nothing but what was uttered in the public debate. In reporting my speeches for Both Sides, many paragraphs were much condensed; but Mr. Hawks succeeded in bringing out the sense for the most part, and as I have corrected most of the mistakes in the sheets I sent you some time ago, I should not be disposed to re-write them all over again. Possibly your speeches will appear when in print in a permanent form longer than mine from the fact above stated, but you have my full sanction for the publication of the debate.
