DEATH AFTER MIDNIGHT (PAPERBACK)

Gunboss Books, United Kingdom, 2011. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .WARNING: the Jaared Sen Quartet thrillers are NOT cozy mysteries! They contain graphic depictions of violence and adult situations in a near-future London. Author finds Holy Grail A murdered priest in an insignificant village called Rennes-le-Chateau. Mysterious treasure tied to the Priory of Sion. The blind detective who can see the path tying them all together. But it won t be easy. It never is. In the sequel to Death in Amber, Jaared Sen follows a shady character pursuing the treasure of Rennes-le-Chateau and the Priory of Sion. Aided by his mysterious benefactress and a beautiful art historian, Jaared journeys into the dark heart of the French Languedoc, its soil and history soaked in the blood of crusaders and martyrs. Praise for Death After Midnight Add in vampires and demons and it pretty much covers all genres. it was definitely an entertaining read. I would recommend it as a fun addition to the cannon. The use of language and imagery is fresh and pithy and the hangover descriptions are especially vivid. A good reading choice if you like books by authors such as Kate Mosse, Scot Mariani and Will Adams. To try combining futuristic themes, vampires, and historical conspiracy theories into both a thriller and a romance seemed incredibly ambitious. the author really pulled all of the threads together into a great story. A new genre of popular novel has grown up in the wake of Dan Brown s Da Vinci Code. combines the actions of a thriller with a mystery concerned with symbols and the Church. with explosive action centred around powerful groups looking for what is at the heart of the Priory of Sion. The characters were very interesting and...
