Brand New Book  Print on Demand .The Queen is Dead In all her centuries of rule, the Gentry queen known as Semele the Great was known for her keen mind and her strength, allowing her beloved Iron Court and the mortal city of Wilmington, North Carolina to flourish side by side. Only in her declining years did she begin to falter, the reach of her Court falling back inside the borders of the city, driven out of the wilder lands to the north and west through a series of failed wars against the savage Beast Kings. But her people loved her, and the shock of facing the modern world without Queen Semele's guidance has cast a pall over the already wounded city. It is an unprecedented vacuum of power, and Iron Court waits to see who will rise to fill it. The Black Prince Lorenzo, the Son of Semele, has all of his mother's charisma and intellect, and his own measure of ruthless ambition as well. Widely blamed for the defeat of the Queen's army on the western front, he intends to restore Iron Court to its former glory by exterminating the Beast Kings once and for all. A consummate politician, he is willing to move slowly, creating his legacy through a complicated network of secrets, alliances, and betrayals. He is widely believed to be untouchable and invincible; only a small circle of unexpected friends know the depths of his doubts and vulnerability. The White Knight Captain Michael Bruce comes from the bottom of Iron Court's social order, a changeling giant born to human parents, but Queen Semele saw his potential and raised him to the knighthood, where he became...
