

Thirty-Four Days of Katrina (Paperback)

By David B Hurt

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Thirty-Four Days of Katrina is my account of before, during and after the storm of the century. I witnessed many different areas of human behavior along with unbelievable destruction. Political blunders and media frenzies were the order of the day. I give a personal touch to stories untold. The following is my introduction for the book. Hurricane Katrina caught everyone off guard. This is as truthful as we can get. We knew it was going to be a powerful storm but the one thing we didn't anticipate was the extremely powerful storm surge that almost completely wiped the Mississippi Gulf Coast off the map. In certain areas it did! We didn't anticipate the damage to the old levee system in New Orleans. We didn't anticipate the need to evacuate thousands of people from these areas until it was too late. Why? Because hurricanes were a fact of life and the destruction from past storms lulled us into a false sense of security. Sure it could be bad but we have ridden these storms out before, this one...
