By Chapel of the Cross

Forgotten Books, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. Excerpt from Year Book of the Chapel of the Cross, 1921 Report of the Secretary of the Vestry on the Parish Work in 192] In the year just closed the Parish has tried to take its part in the many sided activity of the general Church in its mission of building up the spiritual life of men and women all over the world. At the same time we have been concerned with many local matters of practical interest connected with our special. Work here at home. There has been a careful supervision of Church property, involving repairs, enlargement of equipment, extension, and in general, the introduction of modern methods suit able to the needs of the time. The work of the Vestry has therefore been, not wholly, but largely of a practical character. In the eleven meetings that were held these practical matters were fully discussed and plans were made for the execution of the work. Detailed mention need not be made here of the repairs and improvements made in Church property. There were many. But it is proper to state that...

Reviews

Extensive information for book fans. It is written in basic words and never hard to understand. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.

-- Otis Wisoky

This publication is great. It is full of wisdom and knowledge You will not really feel monotony at any time of the time (that's what catalogs are for relating to when you ask me).

-- Dr. Everett Dicki DDS
