Excerpt from Chateau and Country: Life in France Room, and a small room, half reception-room, half library, where he had a large bookcase filled with books, which he gave away as prizes or to school libraries. The choice of the books always inter ested me. They were principally translations, English and American - Walter Scott, Marryat, Fenimore Cooper, etc. The bedroom and cabinet de travail had glass doors Opening on the park. I had the same rooms upstairs, giving one to my maid, for I was nervous at being so far away from anyone. M. And Mme. A. And all the servants were at the other end Of the house, and there were no bells in our wing (nor anywhere else in the house except in the dining-room). When I wanted a work-woman who was sewing in the lingerie I had to go up a steep little winding staircase, which connected our wing with the main building, and walk the whole length Of the gallery to the lingerie, which was at the extreme end Of the other wing. I was very fond of...
