

The Last Best of All Times

By Robert A. Semenza

Xlibris Corporation. Paperback. Condition: New. 168 pages. Dimensions: 8.9in. x 5.9in. x 0.5in. Robert Semenza has always considered himself fortunate to have been brought up in what may have been, in his mind, the last best of all times--an era that spanned only a little more than a decade and a half, from the early forties to the midfifties, from World War II to the Korean police action, from FDR to Harry the buck stops here Truman to Ike. He was even more blessed to be raised in an environment where he was surrounded by a wealth of love and warmth from our parents and a seemingly unlimited number of relatives and piasians; however, the adults in our lives were there only when we needed them--sort of a Charlie Brown type of existence but without his anxiety. He felt that all his wonderful memories would be lost forever and wanted to preserve them for the generations to follow. His tale is told in a self-effacing way and from the perspective of a young boy being raised in the West, a neighborhood in New Rochelle, New York; of Italians and colored people (you never called them blacks or African Americans unless you...
