Reise Know-How Sprachführer German - word by word (Deutsch als Fremdsprache, englische Ausgabe)

By Bob Ordish

Reise Know-How Rump GmbH Nov 2015, 2015. Taschenbuch. Condition: Neu. Neuware - There's no point learning German. They all speak English. Well, yes and no - or 'jein' as the Germans would say - ja + nein. There is no doubt that you can survive with English. But is that all you want Even in Germany, a many people don't speak enough English to keep up a proper conversation and, even if your own German is limited, you'll get people on your side by at least making the effort. You'd be amazed how much goodwill - even a basic knowledge of German - is worth. +++ The Peter Rump language learning technique, originally devised for German-speakers, is equally suitable for English-speakers wishing to learn German. The great strength of the system is that, by providing both a literal as well as a proper (in this case) English translation, it shows you exactly how the foreign language is built up. Since English and German sentence structure often differs so much, this technique is invaluable. +++ Unless you wish to study German properly you won't master all the grammatical complexities. But that's not the aim of this book, which is simply to...
