Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Kenton Cook-Book I have been requested by some fair women of Kenton to contribute a preface to a cook-book that is to aid in its sale the building of an Episcopal Church. I could as well be asked to put up a prayer, or preach a sermon, in the church after it is dedicated. Nevertheless I comply. It has been tersely said by a French scientist that man is to be distinguished from other animals by the fact that he cooks. I cannot say that this is correct, for cooking does not come, like Dogberry s reading and writing, by nature: and so far as our instinctive nature goes we share it with the buzzard. This scavenger leaves the sun to do its cooking, and we let decay go far enough to make meat tender, before we add the artificial process of cooking to complete the work. That definition of man - that he is a laughing animal - is better, for we share that with the dog. The dog is nobler than the...
