1995. Hardcover. Book Condition: New. 306 For a full century, the House of Jorasanko functioned as the cultural centre of this county. For three successive generations, the members of this family led all the important movements of the country in the field of religion, literature, music, education and social reforms. Dwarakanath Tagore, grand-father or Rabindranath was not only enthusiastic about the propagation of English education but was very much in favor of the spread of knowledge about western science.
