I shall, accordingly, speak to you of that Idea of Government, which was actualized, for the first time in Christendom, here in this State, by those who described themselves as a poor colony, consisting mostly of a birth and breeding of the Most High, formerly from the mother-nation in the bishops days, and latterly from the New-England over-zealous colonies. I shall speak to you of the origin of this idea - of the various forms which it took, in its progress toward its realization here, in minds of much diversity of character and creed; and of that lively experiment, which it subsequently held forth, that a most flourishing civil state may stand, and be best maintained, with a full liberty in religious concernments - a liberty which implied an emancipation of Reason from the thraldom of arbitrary authority, and the full freedom of inquiry in all matters of speculative faith. To the founders of this State, and particularly to Roger Williams, belong the fame and the glory of having realized, for the first time, this grand idea, in a form of civil government; but we should honor them at the expense of our common nature, should we say that they were the first to maintain that Christ s kingdom was not of this world, and that...
