Alexandria Multi Media, 2011. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .In the small town in Indiana, there lives a young woman named Bobbi, an independent young woman. Her job is to place detail stripes and brand name stickers on Recreational vehicles day after day. With her heart of gold she gives unconditionally, living in the moment, and embraces each new day. Feeling time going by she allows her best friend from high school, Dylan, to come into her life. She questions this unconditional love she thinks she has found and her life after a near death experience. A coworker hides a dark secret and is quickly slipping from a sane and functional life and begins to act out trying to learn what it is that Bobbi has that makes people love her so. A new boss is hired, but is not the man everyone perceives him to be. This self published, fictitious story contains graphic adult romantic situations, bad language, and a few misspelled words.
