Allen Unwin, Australia, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Main. Language: English . Brand New Book. Australian cricketers have always liked to keep in shape. It s just that a lot of the time that shape is a circle. When Shane Warne waddled out to play South Africa in the 1997 Boxing Day test, his physique wasn t exactly streamlined, but his competitive spirit was still in fine shape. I ve waited two years for another chance to humiliate you, he growled at his bunny , batsman Daryl Cullinan. The bunny looked Warne up and down. Looks like you spent it eating . David Boon has played 100 Test matches, scoring 7000 runs and taking 0 wickets. And, yes, he had the game s best mo. But did you know he spent his years playing international cricket collecting hilarious tales of sporting highs and lows? Now, for the first time, he has collected together almost 200 of his favourite stories across a variety of sports and has created this book to share them with you! Sit down, pour yourself a drink and enjoy being regaled by the legend himself.
