

Patriot's Farewell: The Boston Brahmin Political Thriller Book 7 (Paperback)

By Bobby Akart

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2017. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .In politics, nothing happens by accident. If it happens, you can bet it was planned that way. FDR Sixteen-time best selling thriller author, Bobby Akart, returns to the Boston Brahmin series with page-turning action and timely political intrigue seemingly ripped from today's current events in PATRIOT'S FAREWELL, a Boston Brahmin political thriller. After a devastating cyber attack brought America to its knees, a reluctant hero emerged. A humble professor whose lineage dated back to the American Revolution. Responding to the battle cry, CHOOSE FREEDOM, patriotic Americans rallied around their new president, Henry Winthrop Sargent IV - Sarge to his friends. As his administration worked to rebuild the nation, Sarge called upon his closest friends, the Loyal Nine, to use their skills and resources to assist him. The nation, except for four states which seceded after the collapse, stood behind Sarge and his administration during his first term which focused on rebuilding the country. But as his second term in office comes to an end, the nation is still divided and the drumbeats of war can be heard from the other...
